

"Why This One" Memo Template

Day 1 · Activity 1 handout. A two-paragraph memo justifying the single feature your triad locked in. Paragraph 1 argues in user terms; paragraph 2 argues in business/strategy terms. This memo seeds §1 (Context) of your PRD.

Feature: _____

Author triad: _____ Date: _____

Paragraph 1 — Why this feature, in user terms

Ground this in a specific persona and an observed friction, not a generality. Name whose Wednesday afternoon improves.

Paragraph 2 — Why this feature, in business / strategy terms

Tie to a Tier Sheet metric and the Week-2 strategy. Why now, and why this over the other two candidates.

Self-check before you move on

- ☐ Paragraph 1 names a real persona (Maria / Trey / Susana or your own) and an observed friction.
- ☐ Paragraph 2 names a specific metric it should move.
- ☐ Neither paragraph reads like marketing copy ("delight", "empower", "seamless") — that's the tell of generic framing.
