

Sample Personas — Persona Triage

Day 3 · Activity 1 handout. Three personas, one per page. Mark up each claim as behavioral, demographic, or adjectival, and circle any claim that would change a product decision.

Persona 1 — "Dispatcher Diana"

- 35 years old, married, two kids
 - Drives a Honda CR-V
 - Busy, tech-savvy, loves efficiency tools
 - Wants to feel appreciated at work

Persona 2 — "Reliable Rita"

- Lead dispatcher, 50–120 technician HVAC shop
 - Observed: retypes paper tickets into the system after shift (6 of 8 ride-alongs)
 - Reported: "Mid-day re-routes are my worst hour" (7 of 10 interviews)
 - Workaround: keeps a paper map next to the monitor
 - Assumption: distrusts software that hides inventory (inferred from 3 observations)

Persona 3 — "Tech-lead Tom"

- Junior technician, 2 years in the trade
 - Observed: checks in at job sites via the app 60% of the time
 - Reported: "My dispatcher doesn't know where my truck is half the time"
 - "Young, digital native, eager to learn new tools"
 - "Loves to be efficient"

Your task

For each persona: (1) label every claim behavioral / demographic / adjectival, (2) mark the claims that would change a product decision, (3) rewrite the weakest persona in the strongest one's evidence-tagged form.
